

The Reality War!

Do you ever feel like you are living in a movie? Gaslight was a 1944 movie during the height of WW2. In it a young woman starts to believe she is going insane because her husband convinces her the gaslights being dimmed are just her imagination. That her eyes are deceiving her, and light is darkness and darkness light. Will she discover reality before it's too late? The same is true for us all. Will we discover the truth of the Bible or be "gaslit" by the world?
