

Mark: The Gospel of the Ox

Mark in the New Testament was a secretary for the Apostle Peter and wrote down his version of the gospel emphasizing Jesus as the suffering servant for humanity. In his culture the Ox was the emblem of servanthood and one of the four faces of the Seraphim throne guards. In this series on the gospel message, we will explore the prophecies and mysteries revealed by Jesus and why truth sets us free.

May 17

The Apprentice - Mark 3:13-19

May 24

When Your Family Thinks You're Crazy - Mark 3:20-21

May 31

Jesus vs the Strong Man - Mark 3:22-27

June 7

The Unforgivable Sin- Mark 3:28-30

June 14

Who Your True Family Is - Mark 3:31-35