

Mark: The Gospel of the Ox

Mark in the New Testament was a secretary for the Apostle Peter and wrote down his version of the gospel emphasizing Jesus as the suffering servant for humanity. In his culture, the Ox was the emblem of servanthood and one of the four faces of the Seraphim throne guards. In this series on the gospel message, we will explore the prophecies and mysteries revealed by Jesus and why truth sets us free.

June 21

Parable of the Lamp - Mark 4:21-25

June 28

Parable of the Growing Seed - Mark 4:26-29

July 5

Parable of the Mustard Seed - Mark 4:30-34

July 12

Jesus Calms the Storm - Mark 4:35-41